

Health & Safety Policy Statement

HSE Consulting (UK) Ltd, HSE Property Compliance Ltd, and HSE-Compliance Ltd operate as a group, hereafter 'HSE' ("we," "us" or "our") is committed to our responsibilities and legal duties in accordance with the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 and associated regulations. In compliance, HSE will ensure 'so far as is reasonably practicable' the Health, Safety and Welfare of employees, associates, clients, contractors, and visitors.

Our aim is to actively promote a positive health and safety culture throughout the organisation, ensuring it is considered as a principal priority in all that we do. This will be achieved by the provision of information, instruction, training, monitoring & supervision.

To deliver on these intentions, HSE undertakes to: -

- Ensure compliance with all applicable statutory Acts, Regulations, and all other requirements associated with UK and International business activities.
- Arrange for the effective planning, organisation, control, monitoring and review of preventative and protective measures.
- Effectively plan, control, and manage all Production, Broadcasting, Events, and Promotional activities
- Maintain a safe and healthy place of work with safe access and egress.
- Provide and maintain adequate welfare and other facilities.
- Provide sufficient information, instruction, training, and supervision that will enable employees to reduce the risk of harm from relevant hazards to themselves and others whilst at work.
- Ensure hazards are identified and suitable and sufficient risk assessments are undertaken and reviewed by managers and employees who have been allocated responsibility for the risk assessment process.
- Ensure the provision of suitable plant and equipment, maintaining all in accordance with manufacturers and regulatory requirements
- Consult with employees on issues relating to Occupational Health, Safety & Welfare.
- Ensure access to competent and reliable health and safety advice.
- Commit to reporting Occupational Health & Safety performance within its annual report.

This Policy statement will be made available to all employees, communicated to all persons working under the control of the organisation, and will be made available to interested parties on request.

The Managing Director is recognised as the 'Duty Holder' and as such accepts overall responsibility of Health and Safety at HSE.
